

CPYRGHT

PARIS — Here's how French Premier Mendès-France will try to persuade the U.S. that a definite change has occurred in Soviet attitudes and that cold-war tensions could be eased. He plans to buttonhole CIA chief Allen Dulles, lay before him what he believes to be conclusive evidence, then let Allen persuade his brother, Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, and Ike.