

U.S. Optimism
U.S. optimism
over success of Seato

CPYRCD

30 9 56

Canberra, Sept. 28

Mr Allen Dulles, chief of the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency, said to-day that he felt optimism concerning the various Seato nations strength of resistance to Communist expansion.

Mr Dulles arrived in Australia yesterday on his world tour of inspection, and conferred with Prime Minister Robert Menzies.

He told newsmen he believed that in the battle of ideas Australia and other S.E.A.T.O. nations are in front of Communist nations.—United Press.