FULL TEXT OF INTERVIEW WITH ALLEN DULLES

CPYRGHT

DEANE: "I told you yesterday that our guest this morning would be Allen Dulles. And Mr. Dulles, as everybody knows, is the former director of the Central Intelligence Agency, and a name which you all know, and a name which we all know and greatly respect. I'm delighted to have you back on the Martha Deane program, Mr. Dulles."

DULLES: "Martha Deane, it's a great pleasure to be with you here again. I remember when we were together before."

DEANE: "Well, thank you. I've been reading, as you know, I have finished and I'm glad, your new book, 'The Secret Surrender.' And this is non-fiction. This is a report - this is a report from Allen Dulles really on some of the things that happened during a famous operation, Operation Sunrise, back in the early 1940's, when you were in Switzerland for what was then the O.S.S., and later became the CIA."

DULLES: "That's right. Our - Wild Bill Donovan, a great leader."

DEANE: "You were sent to Switzerland by Wild Bill Donovan."

DULLES: "That's right."

DEANE: "And while eventually - This is a book of facts, and this is not fiction. But it reads like a spy story. And I found myself as involved in it as you could possibly be in a top spy story that was intended to keep you cliff-hanging, as the writers often say."

DULLES: "We met some spies in the course of it, too."

DEANE: "Exactly. I want to give you plenty of time to tell
