 called today inquiring about the background, purpose and intent of the Administrative Management Society. He said A M S is inviting nominations for the 1966 Federal Paperwork Management Award and he wanted to know my views.

I suggested he talk to  about this and I advised him that there was no agency nomination in 1965. He asked for the names of winners, extent of publicity etc.

Then he asked for a suggested nominee I told him the intent was to nominate some senior official who is responsible for an agency-wide program for paperwork control; and that our program is an excellent one and the agency should recognize this by nominating someone responsible for carrying it out and I suggested
