Dear Mr. Dulles:

In connection with the reorganization of the National Security Council, I propose on July 1, 1961 to have the NSC Administrative Office assume responsibility for providing administrative services to the NSC Staff. This change will conclude the present Administrative Services Support Agreement between the Central Intelligence Agency and the National Security Council at the close of June 30, 1961. I shall appreciate your cooperation and assistance in arranging for the transfer to the NSC Administrative Office of the personnel files and such other records as may be necessary to provide continuity to the administrative servicing functions.

I should like you to convey to Mr. Edward R. Saunders a special word of appreciation for his devoted and valuable service as NSC Budget and Administrative Liaison Officer. All other personnel of your Agency who worked so capably over the past 14 years to provide administrative services and support to the NSC also deserve commendation. We will continue to feel free to ask for their advice in meeting problems on which they are the expert authorities.

Sincerely,

/s/
McGeorge Bundy
