Deputy Director for Intelligence

CONFIDENTIAL

From Registrar's Weekly Report No. 41, 17 October 1966

J. Dean Van Gorder at Harvard, Chairman of the Advance Management Program, by telephone, advised that no consideration could be given to an Agency request for a second space in that course. More and more government agencies are requesting spaces. In the past government agency participation in AMP was limited. Dean Van Gorder was very pleasant and readily explained why another space was not possible commending us for the very high quality of personnel sent to the school in the past.

STATINTL

K. [REDACTED] CIA officers at the Army and Navy War Colleges respectively, agreed to explore the possibilities of additional CIA spaces at each of the schools. [REDACTED] called [REDACTED] and said that the Army War College would favor such an addition and referred us to Lt. Gen. J. K. Woolnough, Deputy Chief of Staff for Personnel. Dr. Rolfe Allen, our long time friend and Director of Military Training for the Army also felt that such a request was worthy of consideration. He too referred us to Lt. Gen. Woolnough. We shall prepare a letter to General Woolnough for the Executive Director's signature requesting the additional space.
