OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Thursday - 31 October 1968

1. [redacted] Received a call from Colonel K. K. Cowan, in the office of Senator Strom Thurmond, who requested information for the Senator in regard to a New York Times item of last week relating to explosions in the interior of Red China which has set back the Chinese missile program. He also requested information concerning reports that missiles and rockets are being moved into North Korea from the Soviet Union. I thanked Colonel Cowan for his call and told him I would relay the Senator's questions and be back in touch with him.

ADDENDUM TO JOURNAL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Thursday - 31 October 1968

1. [redacted] Met with Mr. Robert Michaels, House Appropriations Committee staff, and received from him the Director's letter of 8 July relating to Radio Free Europe and Radio Liberty. Mr. Michaels returned the letter for safekeeping in our files and suggested that it might be well in January or at such time as would be appropriate for the content of the letter to be updated for the Chairman's information.

Mr. Michaels advised that the Army and Air Force are developing new light aircraft for forward area observations with heavy emphasis on quiet operation and inquired whether the Agency is doing any work in this area.

Mr. Michaels noted in passing that he had visited Mr. Sprankle's office during the day yesterday a few minutes after Mr. Sprankle had received a call concerning [redacted] security clearances. See Memorandum for the Record.

I briefed Mr. Michaels concerning Soviet rotation of ships in the Mediterranean squadron, withdrawal of occupation forces from Czechoslovakia, the continuing Soviet tests for a space propulsion system capable of making large changes in a satellite's orbit, [redacted] and the current status of Israeli/Egyptian forces in the Suez Canal area.

[redacted] Dorothy Fosdick, Staff Director, Subcommittee on National Security and International Operations, called in behalf of Senator Henry Jackson to say that he would stop in Washington for only a few hours en route from his home on the West Coast to Europe and, therefore, wished Miss Fosdick and Colonel Haaken Lindjord, her associate, to proceed to draft a speech the Senator intends to give in Europe (presumably before the North Atlantic Assembly in Brussels). Miss Fosdick said the Senator would like her and Lindjord to get an updated briefing on the Warsaw Pact military situation and the general conditions in Eastern Europe, Middle East situation, Finland, and conditions on the Sino-Soviet border. Since she had spoken enthusiastically of the earlier briefing on some of these subjects given by [redacted] OSR, I said I would call on him for the briefing and we agreed on 11:00 A.M., Friday, 1 November. 1. [] In response to a call from Mr. Marian Czarnecki, House Foreign Affairs Committee staff, for additional review of certain changes in the draft report of the Study Mission trip to Latin America and the Caribbean area, Mr. Milton Brown, OCI, talked by telephone with Mr. Czarnecki. Later in the day Mrs. Mary Lalos, of the Committee staff, called and advised that additional sections of the report pertaining to Venezuela and the Dominican Republic have been completed and would be sent out for galley proofs prior to review by Agency representatives. It is anticipated that review of these sections will be requested when returned from the printers. See Journal item of 25 October.

2. [] Marilyn Hewitt, in the office of Representative Richard Schweiker (R., Pa.), called on behalf of the University of Pennsylvania students interested in the Central Intelligence Agency and intelligence collection as debate material. I told Miss Hewitt we would send her a pamphlet on the Agency and said that the University no doubt has any other public record material which they would need. At her request I referred her to the bibliography in "The Craft of Intelligence" which she will forward without any attribution to the Agency.

3. [] In response to his request for any printed material which was available regarding the relationship between CIA and the intelligence services of the Departments of State and Defense, I provided Bill Darden, of the Senate Armed Services Subcommittee staff, with several copies of the Agency's pamphlet which he will use in response to a student inquiry.

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Thursday - 17 October 1968

1. [] Talked to Dorothy Fosdick, Staff Director, Senate Subcommittee on National Security and International Operations, about the material provided for a possible speech by Senator Jackson. She was most complimentary about what she had already received and had some additional requests. (See Memorandum for the Record for details.) 25X1
2. [] Accompanied [] to brief Senator John Sherman Cooper regarding movements of Warsaw Pact forces relating to the Czech crisis and the present deployment of these forces. Mr. William Miller, of the Senator's staff, was present. [] briefed on a secret level, carefully distinguishing which material could or could not be used in a public presentation. The Senator concluded the meeting by remarking that he was somewhat reassured that the present posture of the Warsaw Pact forces was not as ominous as some observers had claimed. He said he expected a briefing from Department of Defense representatives tomorrow. 25X1
3. [] Mr. John Sullivan, Administrative Assistant to Senator Daniel Brewster, called to say the Senator would appreciate a briefing on "world trouble spots" around noon on 22 October. After checking with the Director I called Sullivan to confirm the time of the briefing and to invite him and the Senator to have lunch with some of us. He accepted with pleasure. 25X1
4. [] Ken Gray, Administrative Assistant to Senator Joseph Tydings, called to inquire whether a car which has been following a friend of the Senator's belongs to the Agency. Gray had attempted to ascertain the owner through the Maryland Motor Vehicle Department but the license number was blocked. After checking with Security, I informed Gray the automobile does not belong to this Agency and suggested that he should be able to obtain the identity of the owner through the Maryland State Police. 25X1

2. Called Mr. Jack Stempler, Assistant to the Secretary of Defense for Legislative Liaison, and discussed some common problems including upcoming European trip on which Stempler is escorting and making arrangements for Senator Stennis. I said we would like to offer the Senator a briefing prior to departure and invite him to call on our station personnel if he so wished, although I realized the trip was primarily a DOD matter. Stempler said this was entirely agreeable.

I advised Darden of the request we had received through Bill Miller for a briefing of Senator Cooper on the Warsaw Pact and Czech situation on Thursday. I told Darden that we were considering these requests very carefully and provided briefings only when it had been ascertained that the briefing had been requested by a Senator, although we felt that we could not exclude a staff member from the briefing if it was the Senator's desire to have him present. Darden appreciated our problem in this respect and seemed to feel that there was no other way to handle requests of this sort.

Jackson said he did not know [redacted] personally, but knew his relatives and would like us to help him if we could properly do so. A penciled notation on Jackson's reply to [redacted] indicated that Jackson's office had called Mr. George Doole on 13 September and been informed that Air America had written to [redacted] on 2 July advising him that there was no position currently available.

2. [redacted] Senator Jackson reminded me today of his continuing interest in the Warsaw Pact military situation in Eastern Europe and asked that during his absence (he is leaving for the Coast tonight) we keep Miss Dorothy Fosdick, of his office, informed of any significant developments. The Senator explained that in view of his forthcoming participation in the NATO Parliamentarians meeting he wants to follow this situation closely.

3. [redacted] Discussed with Mr. John Reddan, Counsel, and Colonel Labre Garcia, Investigator, Defense Posture Subcommittee of Armed Services Committee, their request for a written briefing on Rio and ANZUS Pact areas preparing for their forthcoming trip. 4. [redacted] and I lunched with Mr. Phil Kelleher, Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, and reviewed with him some of the likely forthcoming changes among the members and staff of the Agency Subcommittee. Kelleher said that the logical successor to Representative Hardy, on the Agency Subcommittee, would be Representative James Byrne (D., Pa.). However, Byrne's interest in defense and foreign policy matters is limited to the Philadelphia Navy Yard, and quite possibly Chairman Rivers (assuming Democrats controlled the House) will not fill the Hardy vacancy.

I noted that I had personally talked to Representative Moore on 3 June concerning this case and that at that time he was completely satisfied with our response and had said no written answer would be necessary to his letter. Mrs. Terry was most upset that the Congressman had not informed her and thought he himself had forgotten this conversation.

1. [redacted] Talked with Ben Gilleas, Director of Investigations, Senate Preparedness Investigation Subcommittee, and made arrangements for [redacted] and me to see him on Wednesday to brief him on the Czechoslovak situation. 25X1

2. [redacted] Advised Colonel James Brower, Office of Secretary of Defense, Legislative Liaison, of our briefing appointment with the Senate Preparedness Investigation Subcommittee staff. Brower said they are now scheduled to meet with the staff on Friday. He added that he had instructed their people to coordinate with us on this. 25X1

3. [redacted] Received a call from George Murphy, on the staff of the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy, concerning the case of the four Italians who have been reportedly picked up for passing information to the Soviets. According to a newspaper account it is possible that NATO information is involved. I told Murphy we were looking into this and would be in touch with him as soon as we determine anything definitive regarding NATO material. [redacted] 25X1

7. [] Dave Brandwein, Chief, FMSAC, called to say that NASA officials had been in touch with him in connection with a question put to Acting Administrator Payne during an open session with the Senate Aeronautical and Space Sciences Committee on 3 October. The question was raised by Staff Director, James Gehrig, and constituted a request for information about the new Soviet boosters. Brandwein had offered to brief Gehrig on the boosters if this would be helpful. I subsequently talked to Gehrig who pointed out that what he wants is information which can be placed in the open record. He cited statements which have been made by the former NASA Director Webb. I advised Mr. Brandwein of this and indicated that this was a matter between the Space Committee and NASA and one which should be worked out by these parties.

I also mentioned to Mr. Darden my understanding that it was now clear that no action would be taken on the Ervin bill (Constitutional Rights of Government Employees) this session. I said we had in draft form a paper dealing with certain legal aspects of the bill, but were not sure whether in present circumstances it would be useful to give this paper to Senator Ervin or otherwise raise the matter with him until the next Congress. Mr. Darden said he thought it wiser to defer any such action until we see how things look in January.

1. [redacted] In response to a query from Robert Michaels, House Appropriations Committee staff, and after checking with [redacted] OCI, I said we had no evidence of Soviet attempts to obtain a naval base from India. I said speculation in this regard might have resulted from the fact that the Indians were acquiring several submarines from the USSR and were constructing, with the assistance of Soviet technicians, a base on the Indian Ocean to support these submarines. Michaels said the request was originated by Representative Sikes (D., Fla.).

5. [] Met with Mr. Albert Westphal, House Foreign Affairs Committee staff, and reviewed with him the tentative plans of a proposed study mission to the Far East. A fairly sizeable group, as yet undetermined, of Committee members and wives is being scheduled for travel to the Far East. Present plans do not include Vietnam. Probable dates of travel will be from 11 November through 7 December. It is not anticipated at this time that any Agency briefings will be desired prior to departure or that any Agency contact or support will be necessary during the trip. a. Senator Ervin has shown some flexibility regarding proposed amendments to his bill to protect the constitutional rights of Government employees, but remains "adamant" regarding any exemptions for CIA. Senator Ervin insists that he will agree to any amendments serving national security, but that the amendments in which the Agency is interested would not really serve this purpose.

b. However, Senator Ervin is "slowing down" and the whole thing is a dead issue for the remainder of this session. The next session will be a "new ball game" and we can take a look at the problem again early in the year.

c. In [redacted] view much of the difficulty arises from the failure of the Civil Service Commission to develop effective machinery for handling personnel complaints before they reach Congress. [redacted] plans to take this up with the Commission at an early opportunity.

7. [] Talked with Dorothy Fosdick, in the office of Senator Henry M. Jackson, following her call to [] regarding an early briefing the Senator desires on Soviet and Warsaw Pact movements and dispositions in Eastern Europe. It appeared that the Senator was particularly concerned about possible threats to Romania, Austria and Yugoslavia and planned to raise this matter on the floor in connection with the debate on the Defense Appropriation bill. I called the Acting DD/I, Mr. Proctor, who nominated [] of OSR to conduct the briefing. I then checked the matter out with the Director. The briefing will take place tomorrow at 9:30 in the Senator's office.
