JOURNAL
OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Friday - 22 April 1966

25X1
1. [redacted] (JSW) Talked with Russ Blandford, House Armed Services Committee staff, concerning possible agenda items for the meeting with the CIA Subcommittee on 27 April. Blandford suggested the McCarthy campaign in the Senate, the legislative package involving mention of the Gold Coast, and the certain civilian airline activities in Laos. I also advised him of the probability of the NEW YORK TIMES series starting on Monday. He reminded me that he had been interviewed previously by a NEW YORK TIMES reporter.

25X1
2. [redacted] (JSW) Talked with William Darden advising him of the NEW YORK TIMES series probably starting next Monday. Darden in turn advised me that the Agency Subcommittee is meeting Monday morning to discuss McCarthy's efforts within the Foreign Relations Committee to have members of that Committee sit with the Subcommittee.

25X1
3. [redacted] (JSW) Met with Senator Stuart Symington and furnished him a copy of the Moscow broadcast on the MSU-Senator Harris matter. The Senator was most appreciative and stated he planned to send a copy of this to Senator Harris.

25X1
4. [redacted] (JSW) Met with Senator Leverett Saltonstall and reviewed with him his proposed newsletter on the Agency. Also furnished the Senator with the Moscow broadcast item on the MSU-Senator Harris matter.

25X1
5. [redacted] (JSW) Met with Clifford Gaucher, in the office of Representative Philbin, furnishing him with an unclassified AID memorandum on various German issues. Also briefed him on the thrust of the OCI memorandum entitled "The Reunification Issue in West Germany." Mr. Gaucher was most appreciative of our assistance in preparing him for his trip to Germany.
