4. [redacted] As a result of the interest generated during the day in a reported LOS ANGELES TIMES editorial relating to the David Kraslow report of interviews with Senator McCarthy relating to CIA activities and their effect on foreign policy, [redacted] [redacted] has been requested to furnish a copy to the headquarters.

5. [redacted] Talked to Miss Olga Watkins in the office of Congressman William Bates concerning the Congressman's possible attendance at the breakfast meeting with the Director and Chairman Rivers. Mrs. Watkins advised that Mr. Bates had been grounded in Boston due to snow and airplane troubles and that I might reach him at home later in the evening.

I talked to Congressman Bates at his home at about 9:00 p. m. Although he appreciated the invitation, he will be unable to attend in the morning but will check with Mr. Blandford and the Chairman for possible updating of information he has received in the last two briefings. Although he had had a very trying day, Representative Bates was in quite good humor, as usual.

6. [redacted] Received information from the Office of Security that both gates (from Route 123 and GW Parkway) will be open in the morning to insure that there will be no problem in entering the Agency grounds for those persons meeting with the Director for breakfast in the morning.
