2. [redacted] Met with Ed Braswell, Senate Armed Services Committee staff, and briefed him [redacted] I also asked Braswell if he had any background on the discussions between Senators Thurmond and Stennis on Thurmond's interest in the Panama Canal. (Senator Stennis had talked with the Director about this at the conclusion of the budget briefing on Friday.) Braswell was not able to shed any light on this but said he would see what he could find out. We have since obtained a copy of Thurmond's bill (S. 2228) to provide for improvements in the Canal and several statements made by Thurmond in the Senate on this subject. These are being sent to [redacted] for OCI's use in preparing a paper which Senator Stennis requested on this.

I took this opportunity to again mention to Braswell the subject of retirement legislation and suggested that we get together with him on our proposals as soon as it was convenient for him to do so. We will follow up on this.

Braswell also expressed the opinion that the budget briefing on Friday had gone quite well. He added that we should not react too strongly or take too literally comments made by Senator Russell at these briefings. (He was specifically referring to the Senator's comment that he did not share our enthusiasm about a sensitive project which was covered in this briefing.)

3. [redacted] Received calls from both Messrs. Woodruff and Braswell expressing surprise and some consternation over the phrasing of Army Secretary Resor's statement on the Green Beret case as it referred to the Agency. I advised them that I had no information on the considerations that were involved in this statement.

1. [redacted] In response to her call yesterday, met with Miss Harriet Robnett, in the office of Senator Stuart Symington (D., Mo.), and reviewed new correspondence from [redacted] a rejected applicant who had previously complained about the Agency's employment processing procedures. Miss Robnett agreed that they could close out the case by advising [redacted] that failure to meet CIA suitability criteria would not militate against meeting the standards of other Federal agencies and that the Agency does not share its suitability evaluations with other Federal agencies. I said we would review the case in this light and supply her with a suggested reply.

merely wished to establish a point of contact in the Agency for future reference.
He also informed me that he is air-mailing to Saigon Senator Symington's

25X1 6. [redacted] Called Lt. Colonel R. A. Jones, in the office of the Army Judge Advocate General, about his draft letter to Senator Vance Hartke responding to an inquiry the Senator had received from a constituent on the Green Beret case. I gave Colonel Jones several minor suggestions on his draft which he seemed willing to accept and told

I thanked Mr. Mote and responded that the Agency has had direct contact with Chairman Miller over the years and that we see no need for change in our procedures with him. Mr. Mote advised that this step of insuring direct contact with the Chairman was warranted by problems that have been encountered in the past in Council dealings with other members of the House Science and Astronautics Committee.

[redacted] Ed Braswell, Chief of Staff of the Senate Armed Services Committee, called and said that Senator Stennis would like a briefing at 2:30 p. m. this afternoon on Laos, Cambodia, and Thailand. Mr. Braswell indicated that this was in connection with Senator Cooper's amendment having to do with this area.

I mentioned to Mr. Braswell the request which we have received from Senator Symington to have an Agency officer appear before the Senator's Foreign Relations Subcommittee to testify on activities in Laos. We then discussed some of the problems involved in such an appearance.

14. [redacted] and I met with Messrs. Pincus and Paul, Investigators for the Symington Subcommittee on U. S. Agreements and Commitments Abroad. See Memos for the Record for details.

25X1 I conveyed to Mr. Paul orally our response to his earlier query to [redacted] regarding the number of Chinese and North Vietnamese deaths during the communization of these two countries.

I reminded Messrs. Pincus and Paul that we were prepared to respond orally, through a briefing by [redacted] to Senator Symington's inquiry of some weeks ago regarding [redacted]. Mr. Pincus said it would be sometime--probably a matter of months rather than weeks--before they would be ready to go into this.

1. [redacted] Called Miss Elizabeth McNally, in the office of Representative William D. Hathaway (D., Maine), and confirmed the Congressman's visit to Headquarters on the 24th of September from about 8-9:30 a.m. In response to my earlier inquiry she said he would be interested in a briefing on Red China, North Vietnam, and/or Russia. I told her it might be difficult to work in all of these subjects and a look at some of our facilities in the time allotted, but that we would work something out.

2. [redacted] Called Miss Obrokta, in the office of Senator George Murphy (R., Calif.), on a constituent letter they had sent to us about employment possibilities with Air America. We are returning the letter to Miss Obrokta and she will either forward it to the Air America office in Washington or supply the information to [redacted] so that he can write directly.

3. [redacted] Robert Hull, in the Department of State, called and said they are tentatively scheduled to testify on 24 September before Representative Hay's Subcommittee on a bill to add the provisions of the Daniels bill (H.R. 9825) to the Foreign Service retirement system. Apparently this early and possibly premature date for the hearing would permit Mr. Rimestad to testify before he is succeeded as Deputy Under Secretary of State by Mr. Macomber.

In response to his request, I told Mr. Hull that we would be moving as soon as the McGee bill (S. 2754) moved in the Senate.

Hull feels that eventually there will be a tug of war between BOB and CSC on whether the McGee/Daniels bill should be approved by the President.

In connection with the recent story of a new early retirement plan being considered by the White House, Hull said that CSC knew nothing of it and, although he agreed that there were certain similarities between the reported new plan and proposals worked up by Foreign Service last year, he said that as far as he knew no such plan had been proposed by the Department this year.

Internal Security Subcommittee, called and referred to testimony which he said was given years ago before the Subcommittee by General Walter
B. Smith and other Agency representatives regarding [redacted] 25X1

25X1 [redacted] Mr. Sourwine inferred that the Agency has testimony which was given at that time. He said he didn't want people to get overly excited but wondered what the chances were of vetting this testimony for possible publication. I told him I would look into this and be in touch with him.

25X1 5. [redacted] General Counsel of NSA, who had requested advice in preparation for his meeting this afternoon with Messrs.
Pincus and Paul, staff investigators of the Symington Subcommittee on U. S.
Agreements and Commitments Abroad. I suggested to [redacted] that he try to 25X1 elicit from Pincus and Paul as much information as possible about the kinds of questions NSA would probably be asked when they appear before the Subcommittee the end of this month. I said it had been our experience that once having gotten the best possible reading on the questions, it was desirable to prepare carefully written statements responsive thereto. I told [redacted] that 25X1 if in the preparation of these statements it was necessary to deal with such matters as the Director's responsibilities in the intelligence community, his authority regarding relations with foreign intelligence services, etc., we would be glad to consult with [redacted] on what should be said. [redacted] agreed to follow 25X1 this procedure.

25X1 Later in the day, [redacted] reported that during his meeting with Senator Symington and Messrs. Pincus and Paul, the Senator agreed that NSA could maintain control of the transcript of their upcoming hearing, that the hearing room would be swept, and that all security precautions would be observed. In response to [redacted] question, Symington said that it would not be necessary to go into sensitive operational details, but when Pincus and Paul registered objections, Symington said that in dealing with operational details they could "go off the record." According to [redacted] nothing was said that 25X1 would involve CIA or the DCI's role vis-a-vis NSA. NSA is drafting a prepared statement which will be made available to Pincus and Paul prior to the formal hearing.

7. [Redacted] This afternoon, Mr. [Redacted] and I met with William Woodruff, Assistant Chief Clerk, Senate Appropriations Committee, with whom we discussed the problem of the appearance of an Agency officer before Senator Symington's Subcommittee of Senate Foreign Relations. (See Memo for the Record for details.)

We briefed Mr. Woodruff on:

- a. Recent developments on the Soviet SS-X-6.
- b. Sino/Soviet relations.
- c. Military situation on the Sino/Soviet border.
- d. Recent developments in Soviet ICBM deployment.
- e. New ChiCom aircraft.
- f. New Soviet bomber.

In discussing the Cooper amendment (restricting the use of U. S. forces in supporting the combat operations of foreign military forces) Woodruff said that the language of the amendment was so ambiguous as to be almost meaningless, and that in any event he was sure the amendment would be knocked out when the Defense procurement bill reaches the House.

25X1 1. [] Met with Representative William Bray (R., Ind.) concerning the letter written by one [] of the Netherlands Antilles, that Representative Bray had passed to Mr. Maury. I advised Representative Bray that the FBI has prior interest in the individual because of his apparent knowledge of criminal activities. Representative Bray thought this was fine and that we should drop the matter. He advised that even though the man appeared somewhat unstable he had passed the letter on for our review in order that we might evaluate the worth of his information. No further action is required. The original letter furnished by Representative Bray was returned to him. 25X1

25X1 12. [redacted] Hand carried to Mr. Ed Braswell, on the staff of the Senate Armed Services Committee, a Moscow Tass commentary on Senator Stennis' management of the military procurement bill now pending in the Senate.

Mr. Braswell mentioned that Senator Symington had talked with him recently about the Green Beret case. The Senator expressed a view that the Agency was getting a bad name in connection with this case and he thought the Director should be asked to brief the CIA Subcommittees on this case so they might be of some assistance to us. I advised Braswell of the Director's briefing of the Senate Appropriations CIA Subcommittee and told him that the Director was seeing Senator Symington today and this would undoubtedly come up during the course of conversation.

I also briefed Mr. Braswell on the status of our negotiations on S. 782. I queried Braswell on the Daniels bill. Braswell said he was quite certain that the bill would pass the Senate in some form but he feels sure that the income tax provision will be deleted from the bill on a point of order.

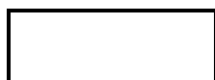

25X1 13. [redacted] Met briefly with Bill Woodruff, on the staff of the Senate Appropriations Committee, and advised him of my conversation with Ed Braswell regarding the Director's appearance before the Senate Appropriations CIA Subcommittee. Woodruff saw no problem with this.

Hunt (R., N.J.) as a followup to the Director's briefing of the House Armed Services Committee on 29 July in response to the Congressman's question concerning reports of a Russian trained warlord in the Sinkiang Province, China. The memorandum has been included in the transcript of the Director's briefing.

I advised Mr. Marshall that I would follow up and be back in touch with him.

25X1 5. [redacted] Winston Bryant, Legislative Assistant to Senator John L. McClellan (D., Ark.), called and asked about the status of the amendments to S. 782 which Senator Ervin had suggested. I advised Bryant that we had worked on these amendments and that they were now in a form which would be acceptable both to NSA and ourselves. I also indicated that we had been in touch with the FBI on these and that the Bureau was holding to its position of requesting a complete exemption from the bill. I explained to Bryant that while we felt a full exemption was a clearer and better approach we could live with the amendments as we had resubmitted them to Larry Conrad. Bryant said that Senator McClellan wanted to help Senator Ervin get the bill out but only if full exemption were granted the FBI, NSA, and ourselves.

I added that we had no useful non-classified information on the subject but would be glad to brief him orally. He seemed disappointed that the matter would have to be handled on a classified basis, but accepted the offer saying he was particularly interested in BW. He mentioned having recently received a Top Secret document on the subject from the Pentagon. A date was set for 2:00 on Friday, 12 September, and [redacted] OSI, will conduct the briefing. 25X1

On the latter item, Woodruff expressed skepticism, saying that it just doesn't make sense for the Soviets to spend so much on an anti-aircraft system and he still thinks the SA-5 must have an ABM mission.

I mentioned to Woodruff the apparent lack of movement in the Pentagon regarding our continued involvement in SWITCHBACK which, as demonstrated in the Green Beret case, is a source of some confusion regarding our relations and responsibility vis-a-vis U.S. Special Forces in Vietnam. Woodruff appreciated the problem and said he would pass the word to the Pentagon that Senator Russell would like some action. Woodruff said that he would coordinate with Bob Michaels, House Appropriations Committee staff, and suggested that we alert Michaels to our concern.
