DIARY NOTES

A-DD/S

7 March 1966

1. At the Morning Meeting, Col. White said that according to the Director, this is likely to be a year of investigations, and he wanted us to be alert to surfacing any projects or activities which could not bear close scrutiny. In fact, he wants a report by Friday on those items that might be viewed as insupportable by an investigating team. I have assigned the action to [REDACTED] who will handle this discreetly with Office Heads. Our immediate objective is to list subjects with only a brief explanation of what we are doing and why we are doing it.

2. [REDACTED] came in and had no complaints. He receives full support [REDACTED] gets good cooperation, and has a delightful, although sleepy, country.

5. Col. White called alerting me to the fact DD/S&T has exercised about having to report on travel arranged for and vouchered by the OSA travel unit [REDACTED]. He had no sooner hung up than Bud Wheelon called saying that he was willing to go along but he didn't want to do anything that anybody else didn't have to do. We drafted a memorandum to the DD/S&T pointing out that everyone else is reviewed by the Central Travel Branch and the arrangements are made by the Central Processing Branch which assures uniformity and both of these branches have been instructed to report to the DD/S on unusual authorizations or claims and observable trends in irregularities.
