CODIFICATION OF TITLE 44, UNITED STATES CODE

OCTOBER 9, 1968.—Ordered to be printed

Mr. ERVIN, from the Committee on the Judiciary, submitted the following

REPORT

[To accompany H.R. 18612]

The Committee on the Judiciary, to which was referred the bill, (H.R. 18612) to enact title 44, United States Code, "Public Printing and Documents," codifying the general and permanent laws relating to public printing and documents, having considered the same, reports favorably thereon without amendment and recommends that the bill do pass.

PURPOSE OF THE BILL

The purpose of this bill is to restate in comprehensive form, without substantive change, the statutes in effect on January 14, 1968, relating to public printing and documents, and to enact title 44, United States Code. In the revised title, simplified language is substituted for awkward and obsolete terms, and superseded, executed, and obsolete statutes are eliminated. This bill is a part of the program of the Committee on the Judiciary of the House of Representatives to enact all 50 titles of the United States Code.

STATEMENT

The purpose of this legislation is to continue the codification of all of the titles of the United States Code.

HISTORY

The statutes relating to public printing and documents were consolidated during the third session of the 53d Congress, in the Printing Act of 1895. Since that time many laws have been enacted affecting that statute, although not uniformly amending it, with the result that the body of printing laws has grown haphazardly.

During the first session of the 90th Congress, the Committee on the Judiciary decided to prepare a codification of those laws, to be enacted as title 44, United States Code. The chairman of the Joint Committee on Printing, Senator Carl Hayden, and the Public Printer, Mr. James Harrison, graciously offered their cooperation in this endeavor. A bill was drafted under the direction of this committee's law revision counsel, Dr. Charles J. Zinn, with the full cooperation and assistance of the Joint Committee and the Government Printing Office. This committee expressed its deep appreciation of their cooperation and assistance and that of Mr. John Haley, staff director, and Mr. Louis Anderson, of the staff of the Joint Committee.

A bill, H.R. 14144, to accomplish the codification was introduced by Mr. Willis on November 22, 1967. The committee invited an expression of views from the departments and agencies interested in the title, as well as the Joint Committee on Printing. Thereafter, upon receipt of such views, a complete review of the bill was made by this committee's law revision counsel and a number of amendments proposed with respect to changes in terminology and other minor matters. As a result, Subcommittee No. 3 of this committee authorized its chairman, Mr. Willis, to introduce a clean bill (H.R. 18612), which is now favorably reported by the Committee on the Judiciary.

STATEMENT BY COMMITTEE

The Committee on the Judiciary of the U.S. Senate desires to join in stating its appreciation to Senator Carl Hayden, the chairman of the Joint Committee on Printing, the Public Printer, Mr. James Harrison, and to the assistance given by Mr. John Haley, staff director, and Mr. Louis Anderson, of the staff of the Joint Committee.

SUBSTANTIVE CHANGE NOT INTENDED

Like other recent codifications undertaken as a part of the program of the Committee on the Judiciary of the House of Representatives to enact into law all 50 titles of the United States Code, there are no substantive changes made by this bill enacting title 44. It is sometimes feared that mere changes in terminology and style will result in changes in substance or impair the precedent value of earlier judicial decisions and other interpretations. This fear might have some weight if this were the usual kind of amendatory legislation where it can be inferred that a change of language is intended to change substance. In a codification statute, however, the courts uphold the contrary presumption: the statute is intended to remain substantively unchanged. The following authorities affirm this principle:

Stewart v. Kahn (11 Wall. 493, 502 (1871)).
Smythe v. Fiske (23 Wall. 374, 382 (1874)).
McDonald v. Hovey (110 U.S. 619, 628 (1884)).
United States v. Ryder (110 U.S. 729, 740 (1884)).
United States v. Sisco (262 U.S. 165, 168 (1923)).
Fourco Glass Co. v. Transmirra Products Corp. (353 U.S. 222, 227 (1957)).
Walsh v. Commonwealth (224 Mass. 239, 112 N.E. 486, 487 (1916)).
State ex re. Rankin v. Wilboux County Bank (85 Mont. 532, 281 Pac. 341, 344 (1929)).

In re Sullivan's Estate (38 Ariz. 387, 300 Pac. 193, 195 (1931)).
Sigal v. Wise (114 Conn. 297, 158 Atl. 891, 894 (1932)).
Martin v. Dyer-Kane Co. (113 N.J. Eq. 88, 166 Atl. 227, 229 (1933)).
Norfolk & Portsmouth Bar Ass'n v. Drewry (161 Va. 833, 172 S. EP 282, 285 (1934)).

The 1895 limitation of 250 copies to any one applicant was removed by this relevant language of the 1922 act: ". . . the Public Printer shall print such additional copies . . . of any . . . Government publication, not confidential in character, as may be required for sale to the public by the Superintendent of Documents . . . without limit as to the number of copies to any one applicant who agrees not to resell or distribute the same for profit".

The 1932 act specifically stated that the selling price established by that act should apply to sections 72, 114, and 220 of Title 44. By inference sales under all three of these sections are to be by the Superintendent of Documents.
