Declassified in Part - Sanitized Copy Approved for Release @ 50-Yr 2014/03/12: CIA-RDP73-00475R000102020005-8

Many People Know Few Know Him

Dy CAROL LISTON Stall Reporter

They serve on boards of hosinitals or boards of businesses with him. They know him as a lawyer, the managing partner of the old Boston law firm of Hale & Dorr.

But few people know him Well. And probably most men who know Hellmuth were surprised to learn he was involved in the Central Intelligence Agency's program to get funds to officials of the National Student assn.

Hellmuth, as a trustee of the Independence Foundation from the United States and of Boston and the J. Frederick France. Brown Foundation of Boston, serves as a contact for CIA, according to former NSA of-

A small, slim 40-year-old, bachelor, Hellmuth is a manwith an incisive mind. And, outside his law practice he: devotes "enormous amounts of time to the public weal," says one good friend, "I don't. know another man like him. He is as fine and dedicated a person as I have ever met," this businessman says.

His advice is sought from such diverse sources as football teams and corporation executives. Those familiar ton area. He graduated in with him trust his judgment, says another man close to Hellmuth. "When he speaks, joined Hale & Dorr. it's with authority and clarity. He's an extraordinary per-son."

Helimuth is a friend of good causes. He was close to the late Dr. Tom Dooley, whose medical work in Southeast Asia became famous. He is a friend of the Boys' Clubs, of . which he is a director here, and the Museum of Science, where he is a trustee.

Hellmuth is noted for his work as board chairman of University Hospital. He is also a director of the Roston , cioncy to Boston. Hale & Dorr Paul Francis Hellmuth is University Medical Center and the Children's Medical Many people know him. Center. Center.

> Says a friend: "He brings to his work, in all these fields, a keenness and precise and informed judgment that's in-valuable."

> INCISIVE AIR CORPS COLONEL Hellmuth was born in Springfield, O., and graduated from Notre Dame University in 1940. He entered World-War II in 1941 as a private and by 1945 was a lieutenant colonel in the Army Air Corps, winning several honors

Harvard Law School brought Hellmuth to the Bos-

PAUL F. HELLMUTH . bright, incisive

1947 and not long after he

As managing partner, he is said to have brought New York law-office-type cffiis considered the most highly organized of this city's big

His (riends say Hellmuth has little social life outside , his work and charitable involvements.

His work has led him to - involvement in businesses. He is a trustee of Cabot, Cabot & Forbes, a vice president of the L & H Corp. of Springfield, a director of the Ritz Carlton Hotel, Eastern Slope Hotel Inc. and the Boston Five Cents Savings Bank.

said to have amassed con- he must have some terrific siderable wealth.

His friends speculate that Hellmuth's sense of obligation to community causes probably led him to his efforts for the CIA, They feel that Hellmuth likely sympathized with the CIA view that international student meetings were dominated by communism because American students didn't have the funds to be adequately represented.

Whatever his motivation. friends agree, it must have been a high one. "He is faithful and devoted to all the un-dertakings he has," says one. "It's hard to understand ex-By astute investments he is actly what motivates him. But urge to do good in the world."

STAT