Networks Electronic Elects Curtis E. LeMay Chairman

LOS ANGELES—Networks Electronic Corp., Chatsworth, Calif., said Curtis E. LeMay, retired U.S. Air Force general, was elected chairman and a director of that maker of infrared detectors and electronic components. Mr. LeMay will also serve as chief operating officer, the company said.

Mihai D. Patrichi will continue as president and chief executive officer, the company said.

A company spokesman said Mr. LeMay has acquired an interest in Networks Electronic, but declined to disclose the size of his holdings. The company earlier had said Mr. LeMay wasn't acquiring an interest in the company or joining it.
