

Off-Record Talks Made to Press Club

A series of off-the-record talks by city officials has been scheduled by the Newspaper Women's Club of New York for its members. Deputy Mayor Robert Price opened the series. City Council President Frank O'Connor will speak in February and District Attorney Frank Hogan in March. By way of variation Mrs. Arthur Goldberg, wife of the United States Ambassador to the United Nations, will speak in January.

The series was arranged by the Club's education committee: Emily Nathan, chairman, Abby Belkin, vicechairman, and Rosalind Massow, president.
