

JAN 22 1966

Fulbright

FREEMAN FULBRIGHT, a former executive editor (national affairs) of the New York Herald Tribune, earlier with Newsweek and International News Service, has become executive vicepresident of the public relations firm of Selvage & Lee in New York.

Croop

A. VERNON CROOP, managing editor of the Rochester (N.Y.) Times-Union for 15 years, has been named to a new post as general executive of the Gannett Company to supervise employe relations, personnel hiring and training, for the 25 newspapers and six broadcast stations of the Gannett Group.