 - c. USIB-D-64.6/27, dated 8 October 1965

1. Reference b requested that member agencies report to USIB by 30 September 1965 on the progress made toward implementing the recommendations for improving intelligence on Communist China contained in Annex A of reference a. These reports are contained in the Tabs to reference c. The CCPC has reviewed the reports of the various agencies. Following is a summary of the more significant efforts which the agencies of USIB report that they are making to implement each USIB-approved recommendation.

2. Recommendation a of USIB-D-64.6/27 (CCPC-D-12/65): USIB reaffirm the high priority for intelligence activity against Communist China accorded in DCID 1/3, and endorse the need for developing a strong intelligence data base and an intelligence competence against China commensurate with that against other highest priority targets.
