25X1 5. [] Met with Mr. William Shattuck, House Judiciary Committee, who told me that although he has no documentation it is his understanding that the [] matter relating to overpayment 25X1 of combat pay during the period [] and others served with the Agency 25X1 has been resolved within the Department of Army. Until he hears further he has closed his file on the matter which he had been handling for Representative Henderson (D., N. C.). I thanked Mr. Shattuck for the information and told him we would close out also.

25X1 6. [] Met with Mary Pat Gaffney, 25X1 Immigration and Naturalization Subcommittee staff, House Judiciary Committee, who told me that the Committee would be meeting the entire 25X1 day, afternoon as well as morning. The agenda contains something over 200 items. []

25X1 7. [] Met briefly with Mr. Charles Ducander, Executive Director and Chief Counsel, House Committee on Science and Astronautics, who told me that Chairman Miller was quite satisfied with last week's briefing. Mr. Ducander noted in passing that he was somewhat surprised that the Chairman had requested a briefing before going off on this particular trip to Europe. Chairman Miller is not expected to return to the city until late this month. Mr. Duckett has been advised.

25X1 8. [] Met briefly with Representative Melvin Price (D., Ill.) who gave me his personal apologies for not attending the Intelligence Subcommittee briefing on Monday. He noted that as much as he would have enjoyed the Agency briefing, the long weekend and celebrations in Italy were very enjoyable. He expects that the Subcommittee will be coming out again and he will be with them at that time.

25X1 9. [] Met briefly with Representative William Bray who told me that the Intelligence Subcommittee of House Armed Services had had a good meeting this morning with Ray Cline at State Department and he expects that they will continue these meetings as rapidly as possible with the various elements of the intelligence community. Mr. Bray very much enjoyed his visit to the Agency.
