25X1

25X1

25X1

25X1

25X1

25X1

25X1

25X1

Page 2

Tuesday - 28 June 1966 6. Armed Services Committee staff, and gave him a little more information on However, Mr. Darden felt he would like to go over this case in some detail and I said I would pull the papers together and be back in touch with him. Senator John Stennis telephoned asking if he could get an informal briefing on Southeast Asia or any other items we wished to bring to his attention. He indicated he did not wish to bother any of our top people. Arrangements were made for an Il o'clock meeting tomorrow morning. 9. Discussed the with J. Garner Cline of the House Subcommittee on immigration and Naturalization. Cline can foresee no difficulty with either bill on their merits, but believes that without outside pressure it is unlikely that either bill will be considered in the near future. In the case of the I shall suggest to the desk that the beneficiaries write their Congressmen asking for assistance. 10. Met with Miss Drummon, in the office of Representative Natcher, concerning Miss Drummon, in the office of Representative Natcher, concerning Miss Drummon, in the office of Representative Natcher, concerning Miss Drummon in the office of Representative Natcher, concerning Miss Drummon in the office of Representative Natcher, concerning Miss Drummon in the office of Representative Natcher, concerning Miss Drummon in the office of Representative Natcher, concerning Miss Drummon in the office of Representative Natcher, concerning Miss Drummon in the office of Representative Natcher, concerning Miss Drummon in the office of Representative Natcher, concerning Miss Drummon in the office of Representative Natcher, concerning Miss Drummon in the office of Representative Natcher, concerning Miss Drummon in the office of Representative Natcher, concerning Miss Drummon in the office of Representative Natcher, concerning Miss Drummon in the office of Representative Natcher, concerning Miss Drummon in the office of Representative Natcher, concerning Miss Drummon in the office of Representative Natcher, concern	Journal - Office of Legislative Counsel	Page 2
Armed Services Committee staff, and gave him a little more information on However, Mr. Darden felt he would like to go over this case in some detail and I said I would pull the papers together and be back in touch with him. 8. Senator John Stennis telephoned asking if he could get an informal briefing on Southeast Asia or any other items we wished to bring to his attention. He indicated he did not wish to bother any of our top people. Arrangements were made for an 11 o'clock meeting tomorrow morning. 9. Discussed the with J. Garner Cline of the House Subcommittee on Immigration and Naturalization. Cline can foresee no difficulty with either bill on their merits, but believes that without outside pressure it is unlikely that either bill will be considered in the near future. In the case of the I shall suggest to the desk that the beneficiaries write their Congressmen asking for assistance. 10. Met with Miss Drummon, in the office of Representative Natcher, concerning Miss Drummon, in the office of Representative Natcher, concerning Miss Drummon said our reply was most satisfactory under the circumstances and wanted to know if did submit an application would it be reviewed and I said
Armed Services Committee staff, and gave him a little more information on However, Mr. Darden felt he would like to go over this case in some detail and I said I would pull the papers together and be back in touch with him. Senator John Stennis telephoned asking if he could get an informal briefing on Southeast Asia or any other items we wished to bring to his attention. He indicated he did not wish to bother any of our top people. Arrangements were made for an Il o'clock meeting tomorrow morning. 9. Discussed the with J. Garner Cline of the House Subcommittee on Immigration and Naturalization. Cline can foresee no difficulty with either bill on their merits, but believes that without outside pressure it is unlikely that either bill will be considered in the near future. In the case of the I shall suggest to the desk that the beneficiaries write their Congressmen asking for assistance. 10. Met with Miss Drummon, in the office of Representative Natcher, concerning Miss Drummon, in the office of Representative Natcher, concerning Miss Drummon said our reply was most satisfactory under the circumstances and wanted to know if did submit an application would it be reviewed and I said
Armed Services Committee staff, and gave him a little more information on However, Mr. Darden felt he would like to go over this case in some detail and I said I would pull the papers together and be back in touch with him. Senator John Stennis telephoned asking if he could get an informal briefing on Southeast Asia or any other items we wished to bring to his attention. He indicated he did not wish to bother any of our top people. Arrangements were made for an Il o'clock meeting tomorrow morning. 9. Discussed the with J. Garner Cline of the House Subcommittee on Immigration and Naturalization. Cline can foresee no difficulty with either bill on their merits; but believes that without outside pressure it is unlikely that either bill will be considered in the near future. In the case of the I shall suggest to the desk that the beneficiaries write their Congressmen asking for assistance. 10. Met with Miss Drummon, in the office of Representative Natcher, concerning Miss Drummon, in the office of Representative Natcher, concerning Miss Drummon said our reply was most satisfactory under the circumstances and wanted to know if did submit an application would it be reviewed and I said			-
However, Mr. Darden felt he would like to go over this case in some detail and I said I would pull the papers together and be back in touch with him. Senator John Stennis telephoned asking if he could get an informal briefing on Southeast Asia or any other items we wished to bring to his attention. He indicated he did not wish to bother any of our top people. Arrangements were made for an Il o'clock meeting tomorrow morning. 9. Discussed the with J. Garner Cline of the House Subcommittee on Immigration and Naturalization. Cline can foresee no difficulty with either bill on their merits, but believes that without outside pressure it is unlikely that either bill will be considered in the near future. In the case of the I shall suggest to the desk that the beneficiaries write their Congressmen asking for assistance. Met with Miss Drummon, in the office of Representative Natcher, concerning Miss Drummon said our reply was most satisfactory under the circumstances and wanted to know if did submit an application would it be reviewed and I said this case in some detail and I said I would pull the papers together and be back in touch with him. Senator John Stennis telephoned asking if he could get an informal briefing on Southeast Asia or any other items we wished to bring to his attention. He indicated he did not wish to bother any of our top people. Arrangements were made for an Il o'clock meeting tomorrow morning. 9. Discussed the with J. Carner Cline of the House Subcommittee on Immigration and Naturalization. Cline can foresee no difficulty with either bill on their merits, but believes that without outside pressure it is unlikely that either bill will be considered in the near future. In the case of the I shall suggest to the desk that the beneficiaries write their Congressmen asking for assistance. Met with Miss Drummon, in the office of Representative Natcher, concerning Miss Drummon said our reply was most satisfactory under the circumstances and wanted to know if did submit an application would it be reviewed and I said	Armed Services Committee staff, and gave him a	little more information
Senator John Stennis telephoned asking if he could get an informal briefing on Southeast Asia or any other items we wished to bring to his attention. He indicated he did not wish to bother any of our top people. Arrangements were made for an ll o'clock meeting tomorrow morning. 9. Discussed the with J. Garner Cline of the House Subcommittee on Immigration and Naturalization. Cline can foresee no difficulty with either bill on their merits, but believes that without outside pressure it is unlikely that either bill will be considered in the near future. In the case of the I shall suggest to the desk that the beneficiaries write their Congressmen asking for assistance. Met with Miss Drummon, in the office of Representative Natcher, concerning Miss Drummon said our reply was most satisfactory under the circumstances and wanted to know if did submit an application would it be reviewed and I said	on However, Mr. Darden felt he	e would like to go over	, -
8. Senator John Stennis telephoned asking if he could get an informal briefing on Southeast Asia or any other items we wished to bring to his attention. He indicated he did not wish to bother any of our top people. Arrangements were made for an ll o'clock meeting tomorrow morning. 9. Discussed the with J. Garner Cline of the House Subcommittee on Immigration and Naturalization. Cline can foresee no difficulty with either bill on their merits, but believes that without outside pressure it is unlikely that either bill will be considered in the near future. In the case of the I shall suggest to the desk that the beneficiaries write their Congressmen asking for assistance. 10. Met with Miss Drummon, in the office of Representative Natcher, concerning said our reply was most satisfactory under the circumstances and wanted to know if did submit an application would it be reviewed and I said	this case in some detail and I said I would pull the	papers together and be asking if he could get an informal briefing on Southeast Asia or any other items we wished to bring to his attention. He indicated he did not wish to bother any of our top people. Arrangements were made for an 11 o'clock meeting tomorrow morning. 9. Discussed the	back in touch with him.
asking if he could get an informal briefing on Southeast Asia or any other items we wished to bring to his attention. He indicated he did not wish to bother any of our top people. Arrangements were made for an 11 o'clock meeting tomorrow morning. 9. Discussed the asking if he could get an informal briefing on Southeast Asia or any other items we wished to bring to his attention. He indicated he did not wish to bother any of our top people. Arrangements were made for an 11 o'clock meeting tomorrow morning. 9. Discussed the asking if he could get an informal briefing on Southeast Asia or any other items we wished to bring to his attention. He indicated he did not wish to bother any of our top people. Arrangements were made for an 11 o'clock meeting tomorrow morning. 9. Discussed the			*
asking if he could get an informal briefing on Southeast Asia or any other items we wished to bring to his attention. He indicated he did not wish to bother any of our top people. Arrangements were made for an 11 o'clock meeting tomorrow morning. 9. Discussed the asking if he could get an informal briefing on Southeast Asia or any other items we wished to bring to his attention. He indicated he did not wish to bother any of our top people. Arrangements were made for an 11 o'clock meeting tomorrow morning. 9. Discussed the asking if he could get an informal briefing on Southeast Asia or any other items we wished to bring to his attention. He indicated he did not wish to bother any of our top people. Arrangements were made for an 11 o'clock meeting tomorrow morning. 9. Discussed the asking if he could get an informal briefing on Southeast Asia or any other items we wished to bring to his attention. He indicated he did not wish to bother any of our top people. Arrangements were made for an 11 o'clock meeting tomorrow morning. 9. Discussed the			·
asking if he could get an informal briefing on Southeast Asia or any other items we wished to bring to his attention. He indicated he did not wish to bother any of our top people. Arrangements were made for an 11 o'clock meeting tomorrow morning. 9. Discussed the items we wished to bring to his attention. He indicated he did not wish to bother any of our top people. Arrangements were made for an 11 o'clock meeting tomorrow morning. 9. Discussed the to bother any of our top people. Arrangements were made for an II o'clock meeting tomorrow morning. 9. Discussed the	asking if he could get an informal briefing on South	heast Asia or any other meeting tomorrow morning. 9. Discussed the 25X1 with J. Garner Cline of the House Subcommittee on Immigration and Naturalization. Cline can foresee no difficulty with either bill on their merits, but believes that without outside pressure it is unlikely that either bill will be considered in the near future. In the case of the I shall suggest to the desk that the beneficiaries write their Congressmen asking for assistance. Met with Miss Drummon, in the office of Representative Natcher, concerning Miss Drummon said our reply was most satisfactory under the circumstances and wanted to know if did submit an application would it be reviewed and I said	items we wished to bring to his attention. He indi	cated he did not wish with J. Garner Cline of the House Subcommittee on Immigration and Naturalization. Cline can foresee no difficulty with either bill on their merits, but believes that without outside pressure it is unlikely that either bill will be considered in the near future. In the case of the I shall suggest to the desk that the beneficiaries write their Congressmen asking for assistance. 10. Met with Miss Drummon, in the office of Representative Natcher, concerning Miss Drummon said our reply was most satisfactory under the circumstances and wanted to know if did submit an application would it be reviewed and I said		ere made for an II o'clock	$
with J. Garner Cline of the House Subcommittee on Immigration and Naturalization. Cline can foresee no difficulty with either bill on their merits, but believes that without outside pressure it is unlikely that either bill will be considered in the near future. In the case of the I shall suggest to the desk that the beneficiaries write their Congressmen asking for assistance. Met with Miss Drummon, in the office of Representative Natcher, concerning Miss Drummon said our reply was most satisfactory under the circumstances and wanted to know if did submit an application would it be reviewed and I said	meeting tomorrow morning. with J. Garner Cline of the House Subcommittee on Immigration and Naturalization. Cline can foresee no difficulty with either bill on their merits, but believes that without outside pressure it is unlikely that either bill will be considered in the near future. In the case of the I shall suggest to the desk that the beneficiaries write their Congressmen asking for assistance. Met with Miss Drummon, in the office of Representative Natcher, concerning Miss Drummon said our reply was most satisfactory under the circumstances and wanted to know if did submit an application would it be reviewed and I said	Diamond the	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	ŧ, and Naturalization. Cline can foresee no difficulty with either bill on their merits, but believes that without outside pressure it is unlikely that either bill will be considered in the near future. In the case of the I shall suggest to the desk that the beneficiaries write their Congressmen asking for assistance. Met with Miss Drummon, in the office of Representative Natcher, concerning Miss Drummon said our reply was most satisfactory under the circumstances and wanted to know if did submit an application would it be reviewed and I said		hcommittee on Immigration	25X1 merits, but believes that without outside pressure it is unlikely that either bill will be considered in the near future. In the case of the I shall suggest to the desk that the beneficiaries write their Congressmen asking for assistance. 10. Met with Miss Drummon, in the office of Representative Natcher, concerning Miss Drummon said our reply was most satisfactory under the circumstances and wanted to know if did submit an application would it be reviewed and I said	with J. Garner Cline of the floure of	ty with either hill on their bill will be considered in the near future. In the case of the I shall suggest to the desk that the beneficiaries write their Congressmen asking for assistance. Met with Miss Drummon, in the office of Representative Natcher, concerning Miss Drummon said our reply was most satisfactory under the circumstances and wanted to know if did submit an application would it be reviewed and I said	and Naturalization. Cline can foresee no difficult	e it is unlikely that either
I shall suggest to the desk that the beneficiaries write their Congressmen asking for assistance. Met with Miss Drummon, in the office of Representative Natcher, concerning Miss Drummon said our reply was most satisfactory under the circumstances and wanted to know if did submit an application would it be reviewed and I said	merits, but believes that without outside pressure	case of the asking for assistance. 10. Met with Miss Drummon, in the office of Representative Natcher, concerning Miss Drummon 25X1 said our reply was most satisfactory under the circumstances and wanted to know if did submit an application would it be reviewed and I said	hill will be considered in the near future. In the	Lase of mei of Representative Natcher, concerning Miss Drummon, in the office said our reply was most satisfactory under the circumstances and wanted to know if did submit an application would it be reviewed and I said	bill will be considered in the near future. In the	write their Congressmen	25X1 of Representative Natcher, concerning Miss Drummon 25X1 said our reply was most satisfactory under the circumstances and wanted to know if did submit an application would it be reviewed and I said	I shall suggest to the desk that the beneficiaries v	write their Congressmen	25X1
of Representative Natcher, concerning Miss Drummon 25X1 said our reply was most satisfactory under the circumstances and wanted to know if did submit an application would it be reviewed and I said	I shall suggest to the desk that the beneficiaries v	write their Congressmen	25X1
said our reply was most satisfactory under the circumstances and wanted to know ifdid submit an application would it be reviewed and I said	I shall suggest to the desk that the beneficiaries vasking for assistance.	write their Congressmen	25X1 to know ifdid submit an application would it be reviewed and I said	I shall suggest to the desk that the beneficiaries vasking for assistance. Met with	write their Congressmen Miss Drummon, in the office
	I shall suggest to the desk that the beneficiaries vasking for assistance. 10. Met with loof Representative Natcher, concerning	write their Congressmen Miss Drummon, in the office Miss Drummon that it would.	I shall suggest to the desk that the beneficiaries vasking for assistance. 10. Met with lost of Representative Natcher, concerning said our reply was most satisfactory under the ci	write their Congressmen Miss Drummon, in the office Miss Drummon ircumstances and wanted	