1. (Unclassified - GLC) Called Cathy Snider, in the Oklahoma City office of Senator Henry Bellmon (R., Okla.), about the letter we had received from the Senator about the interest of [redacted] in Agency employment. I suggested that instead of [redacted] making a trip to Washington just for the purpose of an interview we could arrange to have one of our recruiters visit her the next time he is in Tulsa. Miss Snider said she thought this was a good idea and we would include this suggestion in a letter we are sending the Senator at his Oklahoma City office.

2. (Unclassified - GLC) Called [redacted] and advised him our personnel people had reviewed his resume and unfortunately we did not have an opening that we thought he would be interested in. He said he had several other possibilities lined up and thanked us for looking into the possibilities for him.

3. (Confidential - JMM) Talked to Chairman Lucien Nedzi, Intelligence Operations Subcommittee of House Armed Services Committee, regarding his visit to Headquarters scheduled for 29 November. Mr. Nedzi, who plans to arrive at 10:30 a. m. that morning, said he would like to get away by 2:00 p. m. and indicated he was not in favor of a particularly long lunch. I suggested that in view of his previously expressed interest in community coordination, Vietnam and the classification problem we schedule him with Mr. Tweedy from 10:30 to 11:15, Mr. Carver from 11:15 to 12:00 and Mr. Warner from 12:00 to 12:30 followed by a 45-minute lunch with the Director and a tour of the Cuban Missile exhibit from 1:15 until 2:00. He said this sounded fine.

3. (Unclassified - JMM) Called Rob Mosbacher, Staff Assistant to Senator Howard Baker, to remind him of our outstanding invitation for him and Senator Baker to visit Headquarters for a lunch or breakfast and look around the Agency. He said the Senator was in Puerto Rico and planned to spend only one day in Washington between now and January but he would pass the word the first opportunity. I mentioned the Cuban missile exhibit as something the Senator might be interested in.

I told Mosbacher that if the Senator wasn't available we would be very happy to have Mosbacher come out for a lunch with [ ] and me. Mosbacher will be back in touch with us.

4. (Confidential - JMM) Called Representative Lucien Nedzi, Chairman, Intelligence Subcommittee, House Armed Services Committee, to say we hoped to take advantage of the present lull to have him out for a visit, and mentioned the Cuban missile exhibit which he might find interesting. I suggested Wednesday, 29 November, as a date when the Director might be available. Mr. Nedzi agreed to this date and said since he lived in the neighborhood he could get himself out that morning and would like to talk about a number of things including what the Agency was up to in Indochina, how things are going with the intelligence community (commenting that there was a lot of noise about this last year but he had the impression nothing much had happened since), and anything else we thought important. I said I would call back to confirm after checking on the Director's availability.

Mr. Nedzi asked if I had read Lyman Kirkpatrick's article in the Naval War College Review about the Bay of Pigs, which he said "puts the finger on the CIA for the whole Bay of Pigs operation." I said we would be glad to talk about that too--there was plenty of blame for everybody.

Later in the day I called Mr. Nedzi to confirm the invitation for Wednesday, 29 November. He said he would drive himself arriving at 10:30. In addition to Indochina and the reorganization of the intelligence community, he would like to talk about the implementation of the new directive on classification.

5. (Confidential - JMM) Called Frank Slatinshek, Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, and told him of our proposed letter to Representative Les Aspin's query last June about Alfred McCoy's allegations of the Agency's involvement in the illegal narcotics traffic. Slatinshek saw no problem with the letter but recommended we check it with Chairman Nedzi, Intelligence Operations Subcommittee.

I told Slatinshek of plans for Chairman Nedzi to visit Headquarters for lunch and some briefings next week, but Slatinshek said that in addition to any personal briefings, Nedzi planned early Subcommittee meetings, prior to the holidays, to hear from both CIA and Defense on how the President's reorganization of the intelligence community last year is working out.

6. (Secret - GLC) Ed Braswell, Chief Counsel, Senate Armed Services Committee, visited the Agency for a briefing on a sensitive project followed by lunch and a visit to the Cuban missile exhibit. We also talked with him about several alternatives for tightening up the situation concerning disclosures of classified information. Braswell agreed with the position of Frank Slatinshek, House Armed Services Committee staff, on this subject, favoring legislation to protect intelligence sources and methods rather than a proposal to establish a new category of "intelligence data."

7. (Secret - GLC) Handcarried to John Hardt, of the Library of Congress staff, a classified paper prepared by [redacted] OSR, on [redacted] and an unclassified list of possible topics of [redacted] Hardt was told to warn Senator Hubert Humphrey against taking the classified paper with him on his forthcoming trip.

8. (Confidential - GLC) Ralph Hutto, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff, called to advise that the Subcommittee's publication on "The Abuse of Psychiatry for Political Repression in the Soviet Union" was going to press at GPO today. After checking with [redacted] CA Staff, we suggested to the Library that the Agency ride the jacket (#84-417) for 100 copies of this publication. [redacted] will handle the distribution.

8. (Confidential - JGO) Met with Miss Helen Boyle, Secretary to Representative George H. Mahon (D., Texas), who told me that Chairman Mahon's plans are very uncertain. He is travelling throughout the district giving talks in various places and could return to Washington during the next week. The odds are about even, however, that he might not come back until some time after Thanksgiving.

9. (Secret - JGO) Met with Mr. Frank Slatinshek, Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, who told me that since his request of Friday a number of matters have come up within the Committee which will require several staff people to be away from the city within the next week or so. In consequence, he would like to wait a bit before scheduling the Committee professional staff for a visit to Headquarters for a briefing on the Agency and the Cuban missile crisis. He does want to get the professional staff out to Headquarters for briefing during the recess.

I briefed Slatinshek on the Chinese CSS-X-3 missile; Syrian air defense capability; and Soviet underground testing at Semipalatinsk.

10. (Secret - JGO) Met with Mr. Ralph Preston, House Appropriations Committee staff, who mentioned that in the early discussions about Representative Whitten's (D., Miss.) itinerary there was some concern about the unrest in Argentina and that in the event a critical situation should arise during the course of the trip, Whitten would be given ample warning. I told Preston that this would be covered in the briefing on Thursday but that this would not appear to be the case even though Mr. Juan Peron may be arriving back in the country late this week. It was agreed that I would pick up Whitten and Preston at the Rayburn Building, South Capitol Street entrance, at 10:30 a.m. Thursday.

I briefed Preston on the Chinese CSS-X-3 missile; Syrian air defense capability; and Soviet underground testing at Semipalatinsk.

10. (Confidential - JGO) In meeting with Frank Slatinshek, Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, he requested if possible that the professional staff of the Armed Services Committee, all of whom sit in on the Director's briefings, be included in the schedule to view the Cuban missile crisis display and while they are at Headquarters be given an updated briefing on the Agency. It was agreed that I would meet with Slatinshek the first of the week to review the topics he deems desirable for inclusion in the Agency briefing.

11. (Confidential - JGO) Received a call from Jack Brady, House Foreign Affairs Committee staff, who asked if I could bring someone by on Monday morning to assist him in review of the staff notes on the origins of Agency involvement in coordinated Federal activities relating to narcotics. After checking with [redacted] an appointment was made for 10:30 Monday morning for Messrs. [redacted] FE Division.

12. (Confidential - JGO) Late in the day I talked to Ralph Preston, House Appropriations Committee staff, about the travel itinerary for Representative Jamie Whitten's (D., Miss.) trip to Latin and South America. Preston filled me in on the changes that had been made since our last conversation and said that he will be meeting, or at least talking to, Mr. Whitten probably each day next week. In consequence, he did suggest holding off at the moment on a cable to the field. Mr. Shackley, WH Division, has been advised.

7. (Confidential - GLC) At lunch today I raised with Ralph Preston, Staff Assistant, House Appropriations Committee, the issue of the recent prohibition on the payment of shipping expenses of foreign made vehicles after 31 December 1972 (see Journal of 9 November). I asked if any consideration could be given to those employees who had purchased vehicles prior to the imposition of this rule in October of this year. Preston said Chairman Mahon was adamant on this issue. He said the Chairman will not permit any exceptions whatsoever regarding this ruling. He added that any employee who purchased a foreign made vehicle prior to October of this year could have the shipping cost to the U.S. paid by the Government only if the vehicle is shipped prior to 31 December 1972.

8. (Confidential - JMM) Frank Slatinshek, Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, and Ralph Preston, Staff Assistant, House Appropriations Committee, visited Headquarters for a briefing by DDS&T on a sensitive technical collection project. All indications were that they were satisfied with the briefing and are prepared to support the project. Prior to the briefing they toured the exhibit on the Cuban missile crisis on which they were briefed by [redacted] OSA, and [redacted] NPIC. Following the briefing they attended a lunch hosted by the Executive Director and attended by representatives of the DDS&T, IC, and OLC.

9. (Confidential - JMM) Martha Mewborn, in the office of Representative W. S. Stuckey, called to say a constituent had been in touch with someone in Air America named Dick Johnson regarding a position as a helicopter pilot, but Stuckey's office, in trying to follow up on this application, had found there is no one of that name in the Air America office. I said I could only suggest that she call the Air America personnel officer, and perhaps arrange for the constituent to submit a new application for employment.

4. (Confidential - LLM) Mr. Fisher, in the office of Representative Olin Teague (D., Texas), called and asked if we would relay to the wife of an Agency employee assigned abroad that her grandmother had died.

5. (Internal Use Only - LLM) Met with Messrs. Donald Sanders, Chief Counsel, and Richard Schultz, Associate Chief Counsel, House Internal Security Committee, concerning the prospects for broadening the application of 50 U. S. C. 783(b) (Scarbeck statute). Neither were terribly optimistic that any committee effort in this direction would be successful but they agreed that there was a gap that needed to be closed, that they would study the proposal carefully, and that they would endeavor to obtain Chairman Ichord's reaction. They clearly understood that this was merely an informal effort to staff out alternatives and that no policy decisions have been made. They agreed to treat the matter on that basis.

6. (Confidential - JMM) Mr. Warner and I met with Frank Slatinshek, Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, and explained to him OGC's proposal for amendments to the National Security Act designed to more effectively protect intelligence sources and methods. Slatinshek commented that he was "all for us" in seeking such amendments and that his only concern was whether we could get the support we needed from the Administration, or whether the introduction of such proposals in the Congress might open up questions which we would prefer not to have raised. In any event he is clearly prepared to support whatever proposal we finally decide upon.

Although Mr. Preston told him that an Agency briefing has been scheduled prior to their departure, he did not touch on any of the details. At this time Mr. Preston does not know when to expect Representative Sikes (D., Fla.) but he does not expect that he will be back in the city for at least a week.

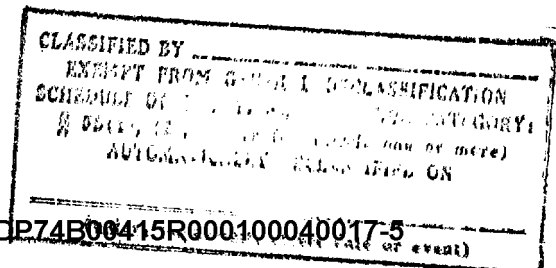

As for Friday's meeting here at Headquarters for briefing by Mr. Duckett, DDS&T, Mr. Preston will drive himself to Headquarters.

4. (Confidential - JGO) Met with Mr. Ralph Preston, House Appropriations Committee staff, and reviewed the present travel plans for Representative Jamie L. Whitten's (D., Miss.) Latin and South American trip, 18 November through 13 December. The briefing for Representative Whitten for 16 November will be at Headquarters with lunch. The time schedule will have to be worked out with Mr. Whitten after the election. Mr. Preston told me that Representatives Mahon and Rhodes could possibly be included in the trip and asked if there would be any problem of Rhodes sitting in on Agency briefings. I assured Mr. Preston that there would be none. General Walters, DDCI, and Mr. Shackley, WH Division, have been advised.

I briefed Mr. Preston on several matters of current intelligence interest. See Memorandum for the Record.

5. (Secret - JGO) In meeting with Ralph Preston, House Appropriations Committee staff, today I scheduled a Headquarters briefing and luncheon for him with Messrs. Duckett, DDS&T, and Proctor, DDI, for Friday, 10 November, at 10:30 a.m. I told Mr. Preston that while he was here I would hope to take him through the Cuban missile crisis exhibit. Messrs. Duckett and Proctor have been advised.

6. (Confidential - JGO) [redacted] OCI, and I met with Representative O. C. Fisher (D., Tex.) in his office. Representative Fisher explained that he is travelling throughout the Pacific area at the request of Chairman Hebert, House Armed Services Committee, to identify insofar as possible the nature and amount of military supplies and equipment that will be remaining in the field as a result of the pending Vietnam cease-fire. He does not anticipate that he will have any need for contact with Agency representatives or have special Agency briefings. Should the need arise, contact will be made through the Ambassador. [redacted] briefed Representative Fisher on the current political situation and responded to his questions concerning the various elections and the political personalities involved. Representative Fisher indicated that he will be willing to meet with us on his return.
