25X1 5. [redacted] Met with James Flug and Mike Epstein, of the staff of Senator Edward Kennedy's Subcommittee on Administrative Practice and Procedures of the Senate Judiciary Committee. I explained to them that [redacted] had been contacted, had provided completely negative answers to a series of questions which the Senator had raised in a recent letter to the Director. See Memo for Record.

25X1 6. [redacted] Attended a meeting of the Legislative Interdepartmental Group at the White House. See Memo for Record.

25X1 7. [redacted] On the basis of a request from [redacted] OTR, that we line up a speaker, called Robert Mosbacher, in the office of Senator Howard Baker (R., Tenn.), to ask if he would be available to meet with the Advanced Intelligence Seminar on 18 October at 2:00 on the Hill to give them the advantage of his perspective on Executive/Legislative relationships and to answer questions. Mosbacher said he would be pleased to participate and it was agreed that we would get together sometime in the first week of October to provide him further details and to nail down the logistics of the situation. [redacted] was advised. 25X1

25X1 8. [redacted] In a conversation with Jay Sourwine, Chief Counsel, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, it was agreed that whoever first obtained a copy of the 59-page essay by D. Gareth Porter concerning the North Vietnamese bloodbath would provide the other with a copy. 25X1
