NEW TOP MAN

CPYRGHT

TONY SERGEANT: "This country's spying system, the Central Intelligence Agency, gets a new top man, stepping down is former Admiral William Rayborn, whom Mr. Johnson appointed less than a year ago. It was generally though Rayborn's CIA work did not measure up to his earlier fine record in the Polaris missile program.

"Into Rayborn's job goes a long time professional espionage man, Richard Helms. He's been with the CIA since its founding 20 years ago. Helms maintains a lot of the criticism the spy agency gets is not fair. 'All toll,' says Helms, 'I think we've done a fine job over the years.'"
