WHO PUTS UP THE MONEY?

Most of us would like to see the 1,113 Bay of Pigs prisoners sprung from Castro's hellhole jails, by James B. Donovan or anybody else.

But the Kennedy Administration—whose clumsiness was to blame for these men's capture—is being very secretive about how Donovan's rescue job is to be financed.

The $64 question is: Are U. S. funds involved; and if so, how much? If JFK plans to use taxpayers' money in a surrender to an international blackmailer, the people ought to be so informed, in order that they may draw their own conclusions.
