IA Aide Calls Cuba Red Base

SAN FRANCISCO — (UPI) —

Cuba is the base for a massive attack on U. S. policy and the focal point for all Communist activity in Latin America, according to the inspector general of the Central Intelligence Agency.

Lynan B. Kirkpatrick Jr. told a luncheon group that never since 1821, when Russian threats caused President James Monroe to declare the Monroe Doctrine, has there been such a serious threat to the "integrity of the Americas" as that now posed by the Communists.
