Youngest Sister of Four Follows Well-Trod Path

CPYRGHT

All four daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Borel, 3175 Holmes Run Road, Falls Church, have graced the Sweetheart Courts of their high schools.

Jane, youngest of the four pretty girls, will be crowned this year's JEB Stuart Sweetheart Queen Saturday, March 19.

Nancy Borel was Sweetheart Queen of Falls Church High in 1959, before JEB Stuart was built. Elaine was in JEB Stuart's first graduating class of 1961, and was Sweetheart Queen the same year. Julie represented her class on the court. She graduated in 1964.

Jane's picture was on the cover of the Oct. 11, 1965 Potomac Magazine with a story of the four Borel Cheerleaders.

The four girls are also alike in that they all chose to attend Kansas University in Lawrence. Nancy and Elaine are now married, and Julie is a sophomore at the University.

This year's Sweetheart Court includes:

Maid of Honor-Carla Scott; senior representatives - George

Ann DeVilbiss, Rachael Rice; Junior class representatives Carol Beerstecher, Cathy Evans; Sophomore representatives - Debby Herbst, Patty Hussy; Freshmen representatives - Leslie Daugherty, Julie Van Tussenbruk. Jane will be escorted to the dance by Robb Rice.

YOUNGEST SWEETHEART — Jane Borel, senior at JEB Stuart High School, will be this year's Stuart Sweetheart Queen. Jane is the youngest of four Borel girls who have graced the Sweetheart Courts of their respective high schools. She will also be the fourth sister to attend Kansas University in Lawrence, Kansas.

Continued

FIRST SWEETHEART — Nancy Borel, Jane Borel's older sister, was Sweetheart Queen of Falls Church High School in 1959. Nancy entered Kansas University the same year and graduated in 1963. She is now Mrs. John Ellis and she teaches third grade in Kansas City, Kansas. Her husband will graduate from the medicine school of the University this year.

SISTERS IN BETWEEN — Elaine Borel, above, was J.E.B. Stuart's first Sweetheart Queen. She is now Mrs. Thomas Foster. Both she and her husband are graduates of Kansas University. Julie Borel, below, was a class representative on the Sweetheart Court at Stuart. She is now a sophomore at the Kansas University.
