C. I. A. Aide Hurt By Lawnmower

An employe of the Central Intelligence Agency lost part of two toes on his right foot, it was learned yesterday, while mowing the lawn of his home with a rotary power mower.

He is Harold E. Christ, jr., 31, who resides on Stanley pl., Pimmit Hill near Falls Church. His condition was reported good at Arlington Hospital.

According to his wife, Christ was using the mower and pulled it back towards him. She said its blade ripped through his shoes amputating parts of his toes and breaking bones in his foot.
