CIA Librarian Hired By WCU

Observer Carolina News Service
CULLOWHEE — Peter William Hart of Falls Church, Va., a top official of the Central Intelligence Agency Library in Washington for the past 14 years, has been appointed librarian and professor at Western Carolina University, it was announced Saturday by Dr. W. Newton Turner, vice president for academic affairs at WCU.

Hart, 49, will assume the position Aug. 1, succeeding Mrs.
Lilian B. Buchanan who retired June 30.

A native of Waterford, N.Y., Hart formerly was chief of the Catalog Department at Catholic University in Washington. He joined the CIA Library in August, 1953, as chief cataloger.

Since September, 1964, he has been chairman of the CIA Computer Group engaged in creating a computer-based information storage and retrieval system for documents with security classification.
