Gets Paterson Award

The New York Community Trust, a non-profit Foundation which administers charitable trusts, announced yesterday that the fourth annual Robert P. Patterson Award, established in honor of the late Secretary of War, will go to 2d Lt. John J. C. Herndon jr., U. S. A. The selection, based on leadership, academic efficiency and character, is made on nomination by the Secretary of the Army and the commanding officer of the Infantry School at Fort Benning, Ga. The award consists of an illuminated scroll and an engraved service pistol.
