

CPYRGHT

CPYRGHT

Kaminsky Confers on Job

Mark Kaminsky, at center, of Edwardsburg, Mich., who was ~~expelled from~~ the Soviet Union after being accused as a spy, confers with Elton Hocking, right, head of Purdue University's language department, and Thomas Johnston, director of information at the school. Kaminsky visited the Lafayette, Ind., campus to see about his job. He was to begin teaching Russian at Purdue earlier this fall, but was in a Soviet prison at the time.