

COPYRIGHT

Deirdre Bishop And a Physician Wed in Capital

St. Matthew's Scene of Her Marriage to Dr. Kevin T. O'Donnell

Special to The New York Times.
WASHINGTON, June 11. In St. Matthew's Cathedral this morning, Miss Deirdre Marcell Bishop was married to Dr. Kevin Thomas O'Donnell. Msgr. John K. Cartwright performed the ceremony, and the Rev. Austin McNamee celebrated the nuptial mass.

Mrs. O'Donnell is the daughter of Mrs. H. Russell Bishop of Washington and the late Mr. Bishop. Her husband is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Dayton H. O'Donnell. The senior Dr. O'Donnell is a surgeon at Providence Hospital. His son has just completed an internship there. The bride, who was escorted by Joseph Larocque Jr., a friend of the family, wore a full-length gown of white tissue taffeta with a long train. It was trimmed with panels of flowered lace. Her finger-tip veil of nylon net was attached to a crown of seed pearls and orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white baby orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Eleanor Bishop was maid of honor for her sister. Michael O'Donnell was best man for his brother.

The bride attended the Convent of the Sacred Heart and is an alumna of Georgetown Visitation Convent. She also attended Purdue University. She made her debut in 1953 at the Washington Assembly at the Sulgrave Club and is a member of the Washington Junior League.

Dr. O'Donnell is a graduate of the University of Detroit High School, the University of Notre Dame and the Georgetown University School of Medicine. A lieutenant in the Naval Reserve, he soon will start a three-year tour of duty, working in the field of nuclear medicine.

COPYRIGHT