MEN'S CLUB SPEAKER

LeRoy E. Luberg, assistant to the University president and intelligence officer in the Officers Reserve Corps will speak on "The Building of Military Intelligence" at a meeting of the Methodist Men's Club at 203 Wisconsin Ave. at 6:15 p. m. Wednesday.

Luberg was on leave from his University duties during the Korean battles for work on foreign intelligence. His talk will review some of the non-classified aspects of the U. S. Central Intelligence Agency.

During World War II, Luberg served with the OSS in the China-Burma-India area, eventually becoming assistant to the commanding officer of that theater.
