

Expert Describes Soviet Education

COPYRIGHT

Education in the U. S. S. R. is designed to produce people who is "systematically planned" to can meet th needs of the state train students to meet the in every category. needs of the state, Eleanor S. Mrs. Lowman, author of a Lowman, former U. S. intelli- Government report on Soviet ence expert on Soviet educa- education, has worked for the tion, said last night. National Science Foundation, have been mistaken, she the Department of State and told the J. Enos Ray Parent other Government agencies. Teacher Association, Takoma Children enter kindergarten, Park, Md., in assuming the she said, between three and Soviet system stresses only seven. When they are 14 or science. 15, they are selected for techni- cal training or further aca- demic education. "The years of several years of training in education there," she added, languages, literature and geog- "are the equivalent of 12 years raphy. Education in the of our schooling." The students U.S.S.R. is not "just Commu- go to school six days a week nist indoctrination," but is de- and have shorter vacations.