

FEB 6 1966

STATINTL

William Prather, Employee of CIA

William Iverson Prather, 36, an employe of the Central Intelligence Agency, died Thursday after a heart attack at Fairfax Hospital.

Born in Roanoke, Ala., Prather moved to the Washington area about 15 years ago and shortly after joined the CIA.

He attended Southwestern Louisiana Institute, was a Marine veteran of the Korean War and lived at 2317 Trott Ave. NW, Vienna, Va.

He leaves his wife, Marilyn; a son, William Jr., and two daughters, Dianne and Patricia, all of the home; his mother, Mrs. King Thomas Prather, of Roanoke, and a brother, Robert, of Aiken, S.C.

Services will be at 9 a.m. tomorrow at the Money & King Funeral Home, 171 W. Maple Ave., Vienna. Burial will be in Arlington Cemetery.