A MAN'S BEST FRIEND — Hans V. Tofte, his career as one of this nation's highest intelligence agents in doubt, sat on a bench on the lawn of Western High School yesterday morning, reading his notice of suspension by the CIA, which has accused him of taking classified documents to his home at 1667 35th-st nw, just across the street from the school. He was handed the suspension letter as he was leaving the house to walk his poodles, Bob-Old-Boy and Birgitte, who sat patiently while he read it.
