

PITTSBURGH, PA.
POST-GAZETTE

M. 253,393

FEB 19 1965

$259,595 Left
By Ex-CIA Man

CPYRGHT

An estate of 259,595 was left by Edmund D. Wardrop, of Pink House Road, Sewickley Heights, according to an inventory in the register of wills office.

Mr. Wardrop, a retired officer of the Central Intelligence Agency, died April 24, 1963, at age 52. His estate, consisting mostly of industrial stocks, was left to surviving members of his family.