

WHO'S WHO IN ISRAEL

Hebrew University, 1946-49; Public Service College of the Jewish Agency, 1947-48; with Israel Defence Army; joined Ministry for Foreign Affairs, 1949; Counsellor, Israel Embassy, Mexico, 1956-60; Consul General, Lisbon, 1960-62; Dep. Dir., Economic Div., Ministry for Foreign Affairs, 1962-65.

18 Bialik St., Jerusalem.

AMIRA, Binyamin A.; D.Sc. (Math.); Professor of Mathematics, Hebrew University; Officier de l'Ordre des Palmes Académiques; Chevalier de la Légion d'Honneur; b. Russia, June 3, 1896; m. Varda Finkelstein; Educ.: universities of Genève and Goettingen. Came to Israel, 1910; founder of the Institute of Mathematics in Jerusalem, 1925; editor and founder, "Journal d'Analyse Mathématique".

13 Abrabanel St., Jerusalem, Tel. 39939.

AMIRAN, David; Professor of Geography, Hebrew University; b. Berlin, 1910; Educ.: Berne University. Assistant Chief, Div. of Climate, Palestine Meteorological Service, 1946-47; Director, Israel Research Council, 1956-59; visiting Professor, Chicago Univ., 1960.

9 Alfasi St., Jerusalem, Tel. 31719.

AMIT, Jacob; journalist; Editor "Al-Hamishmar"; b. Kaunas, March, 1904; m. Breina Bavliskit; 2 d.; 1 s.; Educ.: courses in literature, history and sociology. Came to Israel, 1929; member, Presidium, Zionist Council; member, Histadrut Council; member, Presidium, Editors' Council; member, Centre United Workers Party; executive, Hakibbutz Haartzi. Author of numerous articles on various topics.

Beth Zera, and "Al-Hamishmar", Tel-Aviv.

AMIT, Meir; Aluf (Brig. Gen.); M.B.A.; b. Tiberias, 1921; m.; 3 d.; Educ.: Columbia University (Adm.); various Haganah commands, 1940-44, and in War of Independence, 1948; dep. commander and then commander, Golani Brigade; head, tactical dept., I.D.F. H.Q.; Chief of Manpower Branch, 1956-58; officer commanding, Central Command, 1958-59.

H.Q., Israel Defence Forces.

AMITAI, Haim; actor; b. 1898; Educ.: religious school and dramatic school; m. Came to Israel, 1920. Actor, Ohel Theatre, 1926-32; Habima, from 1932.

3 Ecron St., Tel-Aviv.

AMITAI, Isaac; painter, lecturer; b. Jerusalem; m. Esther Harari; 1 d.; 1 s.; Educ.: Bezalel School of Art; Paris Art Academy, Teacher at schools in Tel-Aviv, settlements, as well as at workers' evening schools. Lecturer, Popular University, Tel-Aviv.

Three exhibitions in England, at Tel-Aviv Museum, art galleries in Tel Aviv, Haifa and Jerusalem; during 1959-60 exhibition in U.S.A., France, etc.

10 Zeitlin St., Tel-Aviv Artists' Quarter, Safed.

AMITSUR, Shimshon Avraham; Professor of Mathematics, Hebrew University, Jerusalem; Educ.: Hebrew University; member of Institute for Advanced Study, Princeton, 1952-54; Visiting Professor, Notre Dame University, 1958. Holder of Israel Prize (1953) for Exact Sciences. Senior Foreign Scientist Fellowship (Nat. Sci. Foundation-USA) 1964; Visiting Prof., Univ. of Chicago and Cornell Univ., 1964-65.

Hebrew University, Jerusalem.

AMRAMY, Aaron; B.S. Civil Engineering, M.S. Sanitary Engineering; b. Tel-Aviv, Jan. 31, 1918; m. Miriam Foguel; Educ.: Johns Hopkins University; Illinois Institute of Technology; California and Chicago Universities. Chief Sanitary Engineer, Ministry of Health, 1948-1955; Visiting Professor of Public Health Engineering, Madras, India, 1955-1959; Short-term Consultant to U.N. Tech. Assistance Board in Uganda during 1963 and 1964, and to World Health Org., in 1965. Formerly, Chairman, cultural committee of Federation of Engineers and Architects in Israel; President, Israel Chapter of Water Pollution Control Federation. Contributed papers to professional and scientific publications in the United States, United Kingdom, Israel, and to United Nations press. Participated in Second International Conference, Tokyo, 1964.

1 Telalim St., Ramat-Gan.

ANBAR, Michael; M.Sc.; Ph.D.; physical chemist; Director, Chem. Div., Isr. Atomic Energy Comm.; Weizmann Institute of Science, Rehovot; b. Danzig, 1927; m. Ada Komet; 1 s.; Educ.: Hebrew University, Jerusalem. Research Scientist, Weizmann Institute, since 1950; research associate and lecturer, University of Chicago, 1953-55; member, Israeli delegation to Conference on peaceful use of atomic energy, Geneva,

CPYRGHT

CPYRGHT