HAVANA, Cuba, April 15 (UPI)—Two more Cubans were executed early today by a firing squad for alleged counter-revolutionary activities, bringing the total of executions this year to 29.

At the same time, the Cuban Government planned to bring charges against Howard F. (Andy) Anderson of Miami for allegedly smuggling weapons into Cuba. He could receive the death penalty if convicted.

Dagoberto Munoz Rodriguez and Israel Ferro Gardon went before a firing squad this morning for arming themselves with three Molotov cocktails and planning a "barrage" on the government "Voice of Land Reform" radio station.

A reliable informant said the government will prosecute Mr. Anderson, a Havana service station operator, for bringing arms in to Pinar Del Rio province for an anti-government group.

Anderson was accused with other Cubans, including several former army officers, of allegedly smuggling several tons of arms into Cuba, only to have most of them seized by government secret service operators.

The government radio accused Mr. Anderson of being an agent of the United States Central Intelligence Agency and that he took orders from Arthur Avignon, former attaché at the U. S. Embassy in Havana.

Mr. Avignon, also allegedly an agent of the CIA, left when the United States broke off diplomatic relations with Cuba.

The big American is a former U. S. Marine sergeant who served as a guard at the U. S. Embassy in Havana. He remained there after his discharge to work on a service station chain. He has a wife and two children in Miami.
