Fact one:

It was the bearded one, Fidel Castro, who ordered the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

Fact two:

Lee Harvey Oswald was a cold, intelligent, dedicated spy for Castro, not an excitable crackpot merely brooding over his experience with the Marine Corps.

These conclusions are those of Dr. Carlos Bringuier, the man who fought Oswald openly in New Orleans three months before Oswald successfully sniped down President Kennedy in Dallas.

Other facts which Dr. Bringuier insists are correct include a cold denial that Oswald had anything whatever to do with the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) or the good interests of the U.S. Government. "That story is one which the Communists are trying hard to sell the American people," Dr. Bringuier said. "Because, if they can do it, Oswald will seem like evidence that the United States is corrupt enough that its own intelligence men could kill their president." In addition, if possible, the communists want to show that Oswald didn't kill Kennedy at all, and therefore was a martyr, and therefore that the assassin is still running loose under the protection
