SENATOR CASE INTERVIEWED

Guest: Senator Clifford Case, Republican, New Jersey

Interviewer: Alex Michelini, Newark Bureau Chief, UPI

Moderator: John Scott

SCOTT: "What was your position on the question of review of the activities of the CIA -- the Counter (sic) Intelligence Agency?"

CASE: "I voted in the Foreign Relations Committee and attempted on the floor to get this thing broadened so that we could have a couple of members from the Foreign Relations Committee on this informal supervisory Congressional committee which now is composed of just a couple of members from a few corporations and a couple members of armed services.

"I thought that since this agency deals in such vital matters of foreign policy, the committee chiefly concerned with foreign policy as opposed to defense and as opposed to the nuts and bolts of defense and -- the Appropriations Committee -- should have a look-see at what goes on."

MICHELINI: "Senator, you've been criticized on this campaign for not maintaining an office in New Jersey. When you do have work and you need an office and you're in New Jersey, where do you go?"
