

There is no basis for the charges made against the Central Intelligence Agency by Mrs. Edith W. Christensen and Linda Ann, her daughter.

Colonel James R. Christensen was interviewed for employment by this Agency in January 1966, but he was never employed and was never on the Agency rolls. No or medicines drugs were ever administered to him at any time during his contacts with Agency officials.