SHARP ATTACK IN THE SENATE

CPYRGHT

NEWSCASTER: "The new Director of the Central Intelligence Agency, Richard Helms, came under sharp attack in the Senate today. Helms was criticized for praising a newspaper editorial that attacked Senator J. William Fulbright as crafty.

"Helms lauded the editorial in a letter published in the St. Louis Globe Democrat Wednesday. It voiced displeasure(sic) at having an editorial critical of Fulbright's effort to bring the CIA under surveillance of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee."
