

CPYRGHT

CPYRGHT

THE MAN WHO TALKED TO "CHE"

Richard N. Goodwin, 29, is President Kennedy's specialist on Latin-American and Cuban affairs.

Mr. Goodwin, as an aide to Mr. Kennedy, helped with "position papers" and speeches on Latin America during the 1960 campaign. He made his first trip to Latin America last April and is learning to speak Spanish. He headed a White House task force on Cuba after the attempted invasion of that country.

Mr. Goodwin was born in Boston on Dec. 7, 1931. He was graduated with honors from Tufts University in 1953 and from Harvard Law School in 1958, again with honors. He served two years in the Army.

Mr. Goodwin was law clerk for Supreme Court Justice Felix Frankfurter for the 1958-59 term. He then joined the House Subcommittee on Legislative Oversight and helped to investigate television quiz shows.

In late summer of 1959, Mr. Goodwin joined the staff of Mr. Kennedy, then a Senator. He went on to become Assistant Special Counsel to the President. In that post, at 29, Mr. Goodwin is a top adviser on Latin-American affairs.