Secret Information

THROUGH the years, columnist Drew Pearson has referred to "secret letters to the FBI" or "secret communications to the Joint Chiefs of Staff." On page 1, Section AA of May 27 edition, The Denver post uses one of these wild claims by Drew Pearson of "secret information to the C.I.A."

I mailed the entire Denver Post article to the director of the Central Intelligence Agency. In his reply, the director states that Drew Pearson does not now nor never has had access to classified information in possession of the C.I.A.
