Did Oswald Gun for Nixon?

CPYRGHT

Marina Oswald, widow of the accused assassin of President Kennedy, testified before the Warren Commission here yesterday about reports she once locked up her husband to prevent him from killing former Vice President Richard Nixon.

The incident was reported to have taken place Nov. 21—the day before the President was shot in Dallas—while Mr. Nixon was visiting there. Allen W. Dulles, a member of the commission, said: "We have learned a great deal about the case since she was here before."

Asked if Mrs. Oswald had changed her previous testimony, Mr. Dulles said: "No, there was no change. She added rather than changed."

The Dallas Morning News had reported that she locked up Lee Harvey Oswald in April or May of 1963 after he brandished a pistol and told her: "I'm going to see Richard Nixon." Mr. Nixon was not in Dallas then. His only visit was on Nov. 20-21.

Sources confirmed yesterday that Mrs. Oswald was questioned about the report but these sources refused to say whether she confirmed the story.

Meanwhile, in Dallas it was learned that Jack Ruby's defense team has lost a psychiatrist. Dr. William Beavers quit, saying he no longer was necessary. He was hired to develop evidence showing that the condemned slayer was insane. (UPI)
