CIA-Devil Timberlake

THE villain of the whole counter-revolution in the Congo has now emerged in a small, seedy man who looks like a cross between Adolf Hitler and Charlie Chaplin. His name is Clara Timberlake and he is the US Ambassador at Leopoldville.

It was Timberlake who masterminded the rape of Congolese freedom. Today it is from Timberlake that the Belgian Quilings, Kasavubu-Mobutu, Tshombe & Co., take their orders.

Timberlake nearly sabotaged the UN operation in the Congo, soon after India agreed to send her infantry brigade there, by inviting American warships into Congolese waters over the head of President Kennedy, who had to intervene to avert a major world crisis.

Who is this man Timberlake?

To BLITZ's credit goes the fact that he was first exposed in this paper back in 1950 as a top-American spy and CIA-agent. He was then planted in Bombay as the US Consul-General and was caught in the act of trying to uncover the identity of the author of BLITZ's reports on the Korea war.

Behind the notorious "pyjama parties" by the Timberlakes

(husband, Claire & wife Julie) operated an American spy-ring and counter-revolutionary outfit, first of all in Bombay, and then at Delhi.

At the Capital, Timberlake's chief aide, USIS-man David Graham and his beautiful blonde wife Betty Joan, were nabbed in the act of organizing an insurrection led by Baroda and other Maharajas against the Union and asked to quit the country.

In the Congo today, the issue is Dayal or Timberlake—that is, United Nations or United NATO—and unless Timberlake is recalled, the UN operation is bound to be fouled up and again.
