The Honorable Charles McC. Mathias, Jr.
United States Senate
Washington, D. C. 20510

My dear Senator Mathias:

Jack Maury tells me that Sam Goldberg gave an excellent talk to our Intelligence Production class on the Hill last Wednesday. The members of this class are intelligence analysts who are taken from their desks for an eight-week period for some firsthand experience in talking with people from other parts of Government. The purpose is to broaden their horizons and give them a better understanding of how their work relates to other Government functions.

Sam's talk about relations between the Executive and Legislative branches, and the lively discussion that followed, made a real contribution to the program. I wanted you to know how much we appreciated his making himself available, especially at a busy time just the day before you and he were to take off for Caracas.

Sincerely,
