2. [redacted] Bob Boyd, in the office of Representative Jerry Pettis (R., Calif.), called and asked if we had any information concerning the airline "Tri-9" in Southeast Asia. The request was for several close friends of the Congressman who are taking a tour. They were concerned as to the airline's reliability. [redacted] was called and he had no knowledge of the airline other than a State cable that identified it as an airline in Cambodia. Mr. Houston, OGC, also had no knowledge of the airline. Boyd was called and advised that we had no information concerning the airline and suggested that he check with FAA.
