Mr. R. W. Koch

[Redacted]

Dear Mr. Koch:

Upon receipt of your letter of 14 April 1973, I placed a telephone call to Mr. Strebe's Gunworks, which is located in a Washington suburb.

He wasn't there and the lady who answered the phone told me he is "in and out," that she couldn't tell me when would be the best time to contact him, and that if he had any information on the 9mm Liberator he would have answered your letters. I must say she wasn't very cooperative. She suggested that you go back to the Treasury Department as they would know more about the guns than Mr. Strebe. I read her the copy of the letter from Rex Davis who said you should contact Mr. Strebe, but she didn't seem interested.

You might want to call him person-to-person sometime. His numbers are:

Hope you have better luck than I did.
