OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Friday - 5 October 1973

25X1 1. (Confidential - GLC) Dorothy Fosdick, staff of the Permanent Investigations Subcommittee, called and said they had received a rumor that the Soviets are about to reestablish diplomatic relationships with Israel and she wondered if we had any information on this. After checking with [redacted] I told Fosdick that we had heard the same rumor but at this point we were giving it no credit. She said this was all she wanted to know and thanked me for checking on it.

25X1 2. (Confidential - GLC) Jay Sourwine, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff, called to say he understood Senator James O. Eastland, Chairman, Senate Judiciary Committee, was considering [redacted] legislation on behalf of [redacted] Sourwine assumes that we asked Eastland to introduce this bill. He said their Subcommittee never really had a "shot" at [redacted] and he would like to raise the question of a possible interview with him. Despite Sourwine's statement that he was not trying to put any qualifications on a bill for [redacted] he is obviously suggesting a 25X1 quid pro quo in exchange for favorable Judiciary Committee consideration of a private bill for [redacted] I told him we had indeed contacted the 25X1 Subcommittee on this case and added I would look into the question which he raised.
