2. [redacted] - GLC) [redacted] OER, called to say State Department had asked our permission to pass to several people on the Hill copies of an Agency intelligence memorandum on [redacted] I suggested to [redacted] that they determine which members of Congress were involved and we would then give them an answer. He said he would do this.

10. [redacted] - JSW) Per my agreement with [redacted] I talked with Jim Cline, Counsel, House Committee on Judiciary, pointing out that [redacted] simply will not accept the fact that the [redacted] bill is dead. My query to Cline was, what would Cline tell [redacted] if we here at the Agency referred [redacted] to Cline. Cline said he would tell him that the bill is dead, that there is no good precedent and that similar cases have been turned down.

11. [redacted] - JMM) George Carver, SAVA, and I met with Chairman Lucien Nedzi, Representative Melvin Price and Counsel Frank Slatinshek, Intelligence Subcommittee of House Armed Services, in response to their request for a briefing. I provided a short rundown of developments since the Director's briefing of the Committee on 8 February and Mr. Carver covered in some depth the current situation in Indochina. Characteristically Mr. Nedzi asked a number of thoughtful and probing questions and seemed satisfied with Mr. Carver's answers. See Memo for Record.
